

Golf Course Information

Abacoa Golf Club – Joe Lee design opened in October 1999. What sets this golf course apart is the elevation in its design. It is quickly becoming known for its large and fast undulating greens, featuring the new Tif Eagle grasses. Golfers with a sensitive touch putting style will absolutely love these greens. Clubhouse has Grille Room and Lounge. Electric golf carts have GPS system.

PGA Village– The PGA Village is home to the PGAGolf Club and the PGA Learning Center. The PGA Golf Club is the only facility open to the public owned and operated by the PGA of America. This ecologically sensitive, 430-acre world class facility offers two Fazio (Jim & Tom) designed courses (the North & South course) and a Pete Dye design (The Dye Course). All three golf courses emphasize their native surroundings weaving through wetlands. It's Florida golf at it's best.

PGA Learning Center, a 35-acre golf park created by the teachers of the game. The staff are qualified PGA Professionals who offer all levels of instruction including clinics and private lessons. One to three day golf schools available. Rick Martino, PGA Director of Instruction, was the 1997 National PGA Teacher of the Year.

Palm Beach Polo and Country Club – Private Country Club extending golf privileges to hotel guests. With two courses and an 18 hole putting course, Palm Beach Polo is where the “rich and famous” play golf. The Dunes Course is a Scottish Links Style course designed by Jerry Pate. The Cypress Course was designed by Pete and his son P.B. It is a typical Pete Dye design with large undulating greens and strategically placed bunkers and water hazards...a great “risk-reward” course.

- Attire for men, collared shirt with sleeves. Shorts permissible.
 - Attire for women, collarless shirts must have sleeves. Sleeveless shirts must have collar.
